J. F. Walden, 22 years of age, was shot at 9:30 in the home of his father-in-law, George F. Keeney-Smith and San Pedro police said he shot and killed his wife. George Walden, 18, fired three shots at a baby daughter, missing her and then turning the pistol, a revolver, on himself fired two shots into his heart dying instantaneously.

By Hurd, a youth residing a few doors away, heard the shooting and ran to the Keeney home. There was about ten feet from the Keeney, the dead girl's mother, screaming hysterically and crying for the police. Outside the house and across the street lived Patrolman M. S. Massa who owned the Sheriff's office. Captain and Deputy Sheriff Shaffer and Patrolman J. R. Harrel responded and took steps.

When the shooting occurred, Mrs. Gandy, who comes to Los Angeles from Silverton, Okla., with his only a year ago, was down stairs in the house. She told the police she had told the police about the trouble that had led up to the fatal killing.

WIFE'S WIFE HERE
Mrs. Gandy was married about five years ago in Arkansas and moved to Silverton, where her son, now a year old, was born. After, according to her, Walden became dissolute, she worked steadily and miserably to support him. When he left, she came to Los Angeles and got a job with the Federal government. He sold all his land as an alimony. This he sold for $6000 and took the money.

She gave Mrs. Walden the last $1000 she had to live on while her son was born.

Accordingly, Walden followed, reaching the latter part of February. He has been roaming in the mountains of Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, and South Main and New Mexico, and was last night taken to a hospital in the mountains.

He was found to be suffering from further maltreatment after his wife had been shot to death in the house, saying she would never leave him.

On Friday night, Walden went to his house and, as he was about to be taken into custody, acted rationally, and the police, who had been following him, took "Kesler" away in the night. Walden had to wait until last night to get his wife back to him.

According to Mrs. Keeney, when

Princess Ordered From Tolerable Detention Camp to Red Prison for Trial

This is the fifth installment of "The Khatina Month in Bolshevik Prisons and Exiles from Russia," by Princess Tatiana Kourakine, cousin of Baron Wrangel.

BY PRINCESS KOURAKINE

Copyright, 1923, by United States and Great Britain by North American Newspaper Alliance. All rights reserved.

About the end of November, a great change took place in the personnel of the camp. The majority of the companions that had come with me from Kiev were released. The Poles were sent to Poland in exchange for Russian prisoners; some were transferred to other camps; and the monastery became almost exclusively a concentration camp for foreigners.

I counted eighteen nationalities among them; we even had two negroes. Few Russians remained.

Among these last, the wife of the former War Minister had been brought from Petrograd. I had always avoided her in former times, before the revolution, as she was rather a bore. There were certain stories that were circulated about her, and I had not the slightest wish to know her. But when she was brought to the camp, she greeted me like an old friend and I must say she was very kind-hearted.

BULLETS HER LOT

We were neighbors on the nary and she told me all the details of her various imprisonments. She was full of the rosiest hopes and dreams that she was soon to be released. She did not remain with us long, however.

One day I decided to have a game of bridge with the Englishmen, although cards were strictly forbidden. We met in the contagious ward, after my night round at the hospital. There had been many types there that morning, but we settled down to a good game. They were gentlemen and played well. An English soldier handed tea around on a board and English biscuits that they had brought with them. It remained to agree to a rule.

The inquiry lasted some time.

The magistrate wrote down all I said and then she finished questioning me, he said.

"You shall be brought to trial.

"I give you five minutes to get ready. You will be taken to one of the town prisons."

His words sounded like a death knell; he was to be taken to another prison. I returned to my room to pack and take leave of my friends. The Englishmen, the clergymen and choristers into my pockets, even one was kindness itself, but I was obliged to hurry away as the commandant had sent for me. I crossed the courtyard of the monastery for the last time. Life had no hope whatever of being released.

We learned the next day that she had been released.

There were about 400 foreigners at the camp. They were much better treated than the Russians for at that time the Soviet government still feared the public opinion of Europe. They were not so bad as themselves, though they now, when all the countries of Europe are making advances to them and when they are invited to sit in conference.

I have the most pleasant recollection of all the foreigners in that tower of Babel, where all languages were spoken. There was one especially nice group of fifty Englishmen, who had been taken prisoners by the Bolsheviks near Archangel. Ten of them were officers, the rest were privates. I liked the relatives of the English and the former and the latter. They were all comrades in the real sense of the word, which did not prevent the privates from rendering the military salute to the officers.

ENGLISH GOOD COMRADES

The Englishmen expected to be sent home soon, and one of them, a pleasant Lieutenant, proposed that I marry him fitfully, promising to take me out of Russia as his wife and an English mother. Had I known my fate to one of the Whites or some place in Europe, I should certainly have consented to such a tempting offer. But I could not leave Russia without my son.

I was appointed interpreter to the English officers. When the authorities visited them and inquired whether they had any complaint to make, I thoroughly enjoyed repeating what they said to me, word for word. Thus, for instance, when they complained of not being obliged to wash in the open air in the heavy frost, I commanded them to pull off their hats, too, had no dressing room in his apartment. I translated the retort of the Englishmen with a calm and innocent air: "They beg me to tell you that they are not such swines as you are and they are accustomed to washing every day."

Giving Down at Your Legs

It's a clear frosty day in February, and I'm taking a walk in the courtyard of my cell. One of the guards stopped me and informed me that the assistant commandant had just gone to fetch me. I met him at the door as I was entering the prison.

"I am in the study of the commandant," he said.

On entering the study I saw the commandant and another man sitting at the writing table. The stranger invited me to sit opposite him.

"I am the examining magistrate of the Pan-Russian Central Executive Committee," he said, drawing out of his pocket two envelopes, which I immediately recognized. One of them contained my letter to Mr. Taraykin, and the other contained my son's letter to him.

My heart stood still; cold shivers ran over me.

The magistrate laid both envelopes on the table before me and asked me:

"Do you know this handwriting?"

LIE TOLD FOR SON

"Of course I do," I replied.

"I am not my writing, and that is my son's, and not so terrible you further, I will tell you that one of these was written by me to my cousin, Baron Wrangel, introducing the chairman of the Commission for Young Criminals, Taraykin, and the other was written by my son to the same."

"So you did it intentionally and you do not deny it?"

"Quite intentionally and I do not deny it."

"Would you recommend Taraykin to Wrangel?"

"Because, when, owing to your Soviet government, my son, a youth of 16, was literally thrown out into the streets without shelter or money, and did not know where to go or what to do, Taraykin showed him much kindness."

"Why do you say, speaking of the Soviets, 'your government'?"

"Because I do not consider them as my government, because I hate and despise the Soviets."

"Where is your son?"

I did not hesitate, of course, at this point, to swear from the path of truth and began to lie. I had to do in order to save my son."

"He serves at Gomel, in the fusiliers."

"Have you had any letters from him lately?"

"No."

I learned then that Taraykin,

LONDON "PAGAN AS ZANZIBAR"

Missionary to Tropic Land Finds Lord Forgotten In British Isles

BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
LONDON, July 17.—Dr. Weston, curate of St. Matthew's, Westminster, left London thirty-five years ago to preach the gospel to the heathens of Zanzibar.

He has just returned to the British capital to discover that London and Great Britain generally need redemption as much as the Zanzibarians.

"Our Lord is being forgotten in this country in a way that simply staggers me," Dr. Weston, who now is Bishop of Zanzibar, told the Anglo-Catholic Congress here. London is as pagan as Zanzibar.

had been arrested for all kinds of alleged deficiencies or crimes, his house had been searched and our letters found. All this had happened at the beginning of December.

M. Krassin, Soviet Trade Commissioner, took with him to Moscow when he left England a draft of a treaty which now is being considered by the Russian government and which England is willing to agree to.

The treaty provides for immediate recognition of Russia on certain conditions, the chief of which are that Russia recognizes its debts to Great Britain and claims of British subjects for damages suffered during and since the revolution.

These claims are not to be paid in cash but by a method to be decided by a joint commission.

The method is to be determined by the government which led to the framing of the draft of the treaty, and is said to be the granting of concessions to British individuals and groups by the Russian government.

These concessions are not to be paid in cash but by a method to be decided by a joint commission.

Prominent Persons Are Called in Action of Lord Douglas Against "Pou"

BY JOHN STEELE
(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
LONDON, July 17.—The trial of a remarkable libel suit by Lord Alfred Douglas, poet and journalist and once the friend of Oscar Wilde against the Morning Post, a leading London Conservative paper, was begun in the Chief Justice's Court today.

Lord Alfred, who has a cause for litigation and a mania against antisemitism, is suing the Morning Post for publishing a letter from him which, he says, contained a proposition for men like Douglas to invent wild insults against the Jews. The insults referred to were Lord Alfred's statement that a Jewish financier caused a false alarm in the Admiralty that the British had suffered a defeat at Jutland, thereby enabling them to make about $10,000,000 on the New York Stock Exchange.

It was announced that Winston Churchill, who was then first Lord of the Admiralty, would be called to tell why he did not send Lord Alfred to jail for slander if the story was true. Lord Baldwin, who wrote the communiqué, also is likely to be called.

Lord Alfred has been reiterating these charges on every possible occasion for years. He also asserts that King George was a member of a Jewish conspiracy. His press was recently suspended, published long extracts from Harry Ford's Dearborn Independent.

EXCITEMENT IN MEXICALI OVER

Mayor Loera and Followers in Hospital

"Rebels" Are Permitted to Return Home

General Takes Charge Until Quiz is Launched

BY LINTON WELLS
By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

MEXICALI, July 17.—All is quiet along the border today so far as Saturday night's battle between insurgents and Mexican Councilmen and police is concerned.

Following the removal of the insurgents from the City Hall last night by Gen. Jesus M. Ferreira, commanding Federal troops in the northern district of Lower California, tension has lifted to a great degree.

Mayor Juan Loera of Mexicali and his two wounded followers were removed to the Municipal Hospital for treatment late last night. The rebels, however, were permitted this morning to return to their homes to await the result of an investigation being conducted by the Mexican District Attorney.

Whether five-year-old June Shotched shall remain in the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Shotched of West Thirty-fifth street, who are her parents by adoption, or whether Mrs. Lois Dill, the young mother of June for two years, will have an unceasing fight to recover the baby she surrendered in its infancy to her sister's care, will return to her Pittsburgh home with June, will be determined today when Superior Judge J. G. Hewitt announces his decision in the habeas corpus proceedings over the child's possession in progress before him during the last two days.

The case was submitted late yesterday following a plea by Mrs. Polian's attorney, J. F. D. Jennings, that the mother, who is now the wife of Capt. Clayton Pollan of Pittsburg and who claims that in addition to devoted love for her son, she is a widow, her husband is in a position to bestow upon June all the comforts and many of the luxuries of life he may be given legal right to the little one.

MAN-MADE STATUTES

The court, in a summing up, dwelt on the responsibility of a defendant which, from the nature of the case, might seem to set aside the divine right of a mother's right to her own child against an interpretation of man-made statutes. If it could be shown that the Minnesota court which two years ago awarded custody of a minor to the Shotched, had exceeded jurisdiction in the action, Judge Hewitt stated his belief that the child should be awarded to the mother.

The newest fashion note, as the picture shows, is the use of chains. Small metal links are used to enhance the charms of dainty lingerie. The chains are detachable and may be removed from one piece of lingerie to another, even as mere man removes his collar buttons and studs.

PATTERSON DEATH LAID TO POISON

Drug Found in Man's Home Leads Police to Believe He Took Overdose

A vial of poison, found in the Ardmore-avenue house where Gen. L. Patterson's body was discovered, convinced the police yesterday that the man had died from an overdose of the drug and that he did not commit suicide.

Patterson had been dead for five days. The body was found in bed, which he had recently rented and where he lived alone. All the doors and windows had been locked, and though he had resided in the bungalow for several days the police found no extra clothing or luggage.

The theory of suicide was first accepted but a thorough search of the house revealed a vial of poison which was performed yesterday afternoon but no evidence of drugs could be found. The viscera was then sent to the city chemist for a more thorough analysis.

The deceased was the son of J. R. Patterson, a merchant of Tyler, Tex. He left that city fifteen years ago and went to Chicago, where he received a degree of bachelors of law at the University of Chicago in 1914.

Police said last night that Dr. Martin Espinoza of San Francisco asked aid of the department in locating Patterson a few weeks ago. He said he wished him to appear in San Francisco in an embassied or liaison.

My rheumatism is all gone. I feel a wonderful glow again in the free motion I used to have when my days were younger. I can thank S. S. for it all! Do not close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. When you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, the entire system undergoes a tremendous change. Everything depends on blood-strength. Blood which is minus sufficient red-cells leads to a long list of troubles. Rheumatism is one of them. S. S. is the great blood-cleanser, blood-builder, system-strengthening, and nerve invigorator.

SENATOR LAUDS SOVIET RUSSIA

Brookhart of Iowa is Home
From Europe

Radical Legislator Seeking Farmers' Favor

Regards Defeat of Gov. Preus as G.O.P. Warning

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, July 17.—Senator Brookhart of Iowa, back from a ten weeks' survey of agricultural conditions in Europe, today asserted that the election to the Senate of Magnus Johnson of Minnesota, who was warning of the Republican bosses that something was about to happen in the political situation of the United States.

Senator Brookhart, a Republican, who was elected with the support of the Farmer-Labor bloc to the seat previously held by James E. Kavanagh, in his first public statement since his return to the United States, touched on the Presidential situation. Asserting that he had read only three of the speeches which President Harding had made on his tour, Mr. Brookhart said:

"I should think that about three more speeches like these would elect Henry Ford by about 10,000,000 majority. If the President is a candidate, then the American party was looking for a candidate who will fight for the common people and against Wall street. Some one like Judge Magnus should be drafted for this purpose."

PRIDES SOVIETS

Elsewhere in his statement the Senator declared that the Russian soviet government was second in stability only to that of the United States and that Russia soon would be making inroads upon the grain markets of this country.

The thing that demands immediate attention in an extra session of Congress is the agricultural situation, Senator Brookhart said.

The Senator is saying that we are entering upon a new era; great changes are impending and new developments are at hand. But what is it all to be? This nebulous talk gets nowhere. I was reading for something definite and I think I found it.

HIS CONCLUSIONS

"My conclusion is that economic co-operation upon the simple principle of the weaker brother idea, that has survived the war. It is the only plan that will end the criminal trusts and combinations in America and give to the producers and consumers the just rewards of their labor.

In discussing the situation in Russia Senator Brookhart said: "Lenin is the man of the hour there. He is now suffering from a nervous breakdown brought about by overwork and overstrain, according to that of President Wilson, Trotsky, with whom I talked, is an able man. The soviet government has abandoned the Communistic plan for that of the co-operative.

The soviet today is the most stable government in the world next to the United States. Russia is rapidly coming out of the chaos. Her crops are the largest ever this year, so large that she will be able to ship a surplus to other European countries."

El Hijo de un Juez, Herido por Celos

Keith Wendell Erickson, quien es la policía que era hijo del juez del Sexto Distrito Judicial de El Paso, recibió ayer tarde un balazo grave que le herió F. C. Riley, habitante en la Avenida de Lorraine, $151, en modo que el sujeto que lo apuñaló no ha sido identificado.

Riley, frente al número 1932 de la calle Burlington, Sur. Esta es la substancia de lo declarado a la policía por Erickson y Riley. Ya ha comenzado la investigación.

Los agentes de la policía de la Universidad, con el jefe de la misma, Dr. Charles E. Smith, se presentaron a la casa de Erickson y Riley, quienes hasta noche a última hora no había sido aún arrestado.

Dice la policía que, según lo manifestado por la Sra. Riley, y Erickson, el balazo no ha sido de la pistola que la culminación de un matrimonio desgraciado, y se debió a que el marido está en la creencia de que Erickson le ha robado el amor de su mujer.

Tan pronto como llegó la fuerza en un auto, en tanto que la fura en un auto, procuraba a gritos auxilio para el herido. Theodore Eulenberg, residente en la calle Burlington, Sur, 1431, acudió a su auxilio y logró prestar ayuda al herido, ligándole la pierna arrriba del balazo para impedir la muerte por hemorragia.

Los agentes de la policía Thomas y Guthrie, de la Estación de la Universidad, acompañaron a Erickson a la Casa de Socorros.

Larkin J. Flannigan, que dicen es un falso detective conocido dentro del país, que ha estudiado por más de dos años a la policía y a las agencias particulares de detectives de varias ciudades grandes, tuvo problemas con la policía de Lancaster, situada en el Valle del Antelope. Conducido a Los Angeles por el Teniente Shad Noland y uno de los detectives de la Pinkerton, se presentó ayer ser culpable de tres falsificaciones practicadas aquí, que le produjeron $1500, y agregó que había otras de que se había olvidado.

Algunas de ser un perito en falsificaciones, es Flannigan, según los detectives de la Pinkerton, un ladrón de más que ordinaria habilidad, y suele escoger los grandes delincuentes para víctimas.

Arregló los detectives que los que se presentaron en la ciudad son el First National Bank, donde cobró nueve hombres un cheque por $2600; Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank, al que le estafó $2600, y la Citizens Trust Company, que perdió $500.

Flannigan, siguió diciendo los detectives, comenzó casi siempre por presentarse al más alto empleado del banco, con el fin de emplearlo de aliado de los bancos y de la ciudad, en una ciudad chica. Después de hablar, el tiempo necesario para desvanecer sospechas de negocios, se acuerda con los que se suplicaba le cambiaron un cheque. En los tres casos arriba mencionados, fue éste el procedimiento que adoptó para estafar a sus víctimas.

Argentines Say He's Open to Box Proposition

NEW YORK, July 17.— boxer Jack Dempsey will end his heavyweight boxing career next time in the United States or the Argentine, probably will be determined tomorrow afternoon when Jack returns, the champion's manager confers with Tex Rickard, promoter, and Luis Angelini, the South American manager.

Dempsey yesterday advanced a proposal to stage a Firpo-Dempsey bout in Buenos Aires, capital of the Argentine around November 3, but Kearns has expressed a preference instead for the United States, the promoter says. The proposal was made by Dempsey about Labor Day after he had signed Harry Willard for a challenge, shortly before the world's baseball series.

OPEN TO REQUEST.
De Blasid's manager, who met him yesterday, was open to the proposal and might accept it if it were better than the one in sight. If not, he has promised the boxer he will make his decision tomorrow.

BARBECUE MEETING TONIGHT

"Greater" Managers Make Final Arrangements for Sunday Celebration

BY JOE BUSH
All managers are requested to be present at a special meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock at Spalding's for the purpose of making final arrangements for the Greater Southern California Baseball Association's big barbecue, which will be held Sunday at Smith's ranch, Santa Susana. Secretary Jim Cleary announces that the meeting will be rushed through and urges that every manager be on hand without fail.

Paul Zuelch, manager of the Kint-Skore Pistons, has a tale of woe; here it is: "How come my team don't get to play some of the other good teams like Irvine, Cox-Haas, Azusa, El Monte and the L. A. White Sox? Here my boys have won their last five games and still none of these so-called good teams will meet us. Maybe they don't think we're good enough for them. However, I'll back my young men against any team in the association."

To all appearances, the City League pennant will become the property of the Watts Chamber of Commerce club. The Watts team has won all eight league games and is out in front of Echo Park by a game and a half margin. Echo Park has been winning regularly but hasn't gained any ground because the Watts squad refuses to drop a contest.

Jimmy Buckley, right-handed twirler for the Compton Firemen, pitched his club to its eleventh straight victory at Downey last Sunday. Buckley held the slugging Minerva team to five hits and was in rare form. In most of the games Buckley depends on the hitting strength of his mates to win the battle, but Sunday the Firemen came up against some tough twirlers and it was up to Jimmy to pitch.

Dominion of Canada swimming championships will be held at Grand Beach, Winnipeg, August 11.

SIGNET WINS YAWL RACE

Henrietta, Sailed by Skipper Adams, Captures the Schooner Handicap in Easy Fashion

BY CHARLES WEST
"Times" Staff Correspondent
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SANTA BARBARA, July 17.—Although both admirals of Coast yachting were missing with their flagships, the racing program of the Southern California Yachting Association's regatta opened here today favored by perfect weather. Admiral Solland of the Pacific Coast Yachting Association and Admiral Overton of the Southern California organization have as yet failed to put in an appearance and made for Port Los Angeles. Solland, aboard his Viking VI, and Overton, on the Spindrift, spent the last three days praying for favorable winds which have evidently been missing. They left Los Angeles Harbor Saturday.

Seven races were on today's schedule, including competition of large and small sailing-craft and power cruisers. Interest centered in the first heat of the R-boat race, which was won by the Angela, S. M. Spaulding's neat craft, skippered by Ben West. The Angela was so far ahead that she lost on the last leg of the race and last spilling wind extravagantly and finishing the twelve-mile course in 1h. 7m. 50s., about three minutes ahead of the Calliope, skippered by W. L. Lovell. The Marchioness was third, following the California in ten minutes later.

ORTONA TRIUMPHS.

In the large-yacht division went to the Ortona Laubermeyer's craft, which had a big advantage, both in elapsed and corrected time. She negotiated the outside course of twelve miles in 1h. 8m. 10s., being second, dual both in elapsed time and corrected time, being listed as fishing in 1h. 57m. 32s. a. H. A. Behrman skippered the Dawn. The Alice A. and the Madison were awarded the first and second places.

ORTONA TRIUMPHS.

In the yawl class the Signet took the trophy, Paul Jeffers being the skipper, while Ed Rosenthal's Scaramouche was second, and the Simbad Burton Franklin's ship, was third. The Minerva was disengaged for the day.

SPENCER DEFEATED BY MARKS

"Wee Willie" Proves Easy for Georgie; Soules Wins in Semi-Wind-Up

Georgie Marks made a sucker out of Wee Willie Spencer in the Vernon main event last night, taking the advantage in the second, third and fourth rounds and hitting Spencer practically at will.

Spencer started in rather promising, getting a shade in the first round by outsmarting Marks. Marks hit his stride in the second round and from then on Spencer ran second. George outdistanced Spencer in the second, the third but only outboxed but outdistanced Wee Willie.

In the fourth Marks also had the edge and at the end of the fight Referee George Blake had but one thing to do—to step over and raise Georgie's hand.

Bud Soules took the verdict from Jack Griffith after an exciting slugging match in the semi-wind-up. Soules took the honors in the second and fourth rounds, while the first and third stances were even.

Johnny Lotzay of Sacramento gave the Zulu Kid, a New York bantam, a boxing round for four rounds and easily carried off the verdict in the fifth bout of the semi-wind-up. Kid was gamely mixing his blows, but Lotzay was too clever for him. For two and a half rounds Joe Kelly and Red Matthews swapped haymakers; then Kelly shot a right to the kidney, which caused Matthews, cold as an Eskimo papa.

When he came to somebody told him that the fight was over and that was that.

Harry Ritter, after being dropped for the combat in the first round, came back and fought Willie Hunt all over the ring in the remainder of the bout and earned a draw for himself. Roy Sutherland and Kid Mack fought a slashing draw in the second spot. The opinion was that Price grab the decision over Johnny Metzler in a good bout.

JOE LYNCH BARRED IN NEW YORK

Banty Champ Suspended for Failing to Accept Def. of Burman

DISCLOSURE DISPATCH
NEW YORK, July 17.—Joe Lynch, bantamweight champion, was suspended indefinitely from appearing in boxing matches in New York by the State Athletic Commission today because he had not complied with the commission's ruling in regard to the acceptance of challenges.

Joe accepted another bantam challenge Lynch and following the commission's rule, posted a forfeit of $2500. A champion is required to accept such a challenge within six months after it receives the commission's approval. The commissioners say, Lynch did not do so and his suspension today was the result.

Eddie Meade, manager of Lynch, also was suspended for the same reason. Burman automatically becomes the bantamweight champion as far as New York State is concerned.

Deal Has Not Made Up Mind to Join Tigers

CHARLEY DEAL, who was traded for Red Smith last Monday afternoon, Smith going to the Angels and Deal to the Tigers, has not yet fully made up his mind just what he is going to do. He did not leave for San Francisco last night to join his new teammates. He told several friends that he first wanted to have a talk with Eddie Maler before joining Vernon. He hinted at a bonus before consenting to be a Bengal.

Charley is rather peevish at the way he was treated by Krug and claims the Angel manager did not treat him fairly in the statement that was given out by Krug. Deal will have to play with the Vernon nine or else be suspended. It is more than likely that he will join Vernon in a day or two. Most of the fans yesterday at Washington Park that were asked about the deal were of the opinion that both teams would be benefited by the leading contender.

The champion's car was not found in time for him to try it out on the Beverly Hills track and he had to be content with a spin in De Alagna's car last Friday.

As a send-off to Murphy a dinner was given by Harry Miller at the Club Royale on Monday night which was attended by the champion's intimate friends and racing associates. Barney Oldfield, the "Old Master," was on deck and received the champion yesterday at the old racing days dinner, Jimmy Murphy as the "King of All Drivers."

ORCHESTRA TUNES IN

Even the Club Royale orchestra joined in the spirit of the occasion and played a Jimmy Murphy dance in which the spotlight shone brightly on the smiling Irish comedian.

Murphy's plan call for races in Italy, France, England and Spain. Ernie Olsen will ride with him in all the races abroad, and Riley Britt is being sent "over there" to take his place. Eddie Miller built for Murphy, De Alagna and Count Zborowski, the Polish racer. The first big race is chelched for Monaco, Italy, on September 9, in which the greatest competition will be for the Fiat team of which wild Pete Bordino is a leading contender.

Striking International League Umpires Placed on Black List

PRESIDENT TOOLE TAKES A HAND

Appoints New Men to Round Out Umpiring Staff

W. J. Phyle, Former Coaster, Cause of Wrangle

Five Arbitrators Refuse to Join in Walkout

(By A. P. NIGHT WIRE) NEW YORK, July 17.—The flare-up in International League baseball circles caused by the strike of four umpires in protest of the dismissal of a fifth arbiter yesterday reached a climax late today when John Conway Toole, president of the circuit voluntarily placed on the blacklist the holdout men and announced the appointment of three new umpires to complete his staff.

The situation that cost the league five of its regular staff of ten umpires grew out of the summary discharge of W. J. Phyle by Mr. Toole, who explained today that his action was taken because of the umpire's failure to work in the game of Toronto on the 13th inst., before reporting for duty in connection with the Baltimore-Rochester series at the latter city beginning on the 13th inst.

JOIN WITH PHYLE

Believing that Phyle's dismissal was a result of a decision he had made in a game between Baltimore and Rochester last Sunday and which had aroused some dispute, his two assistants, McDermitt and Geisel, wired their resignation to President Toole and refused to work in yesterday's game at Newark. At the same time they communicated with the other umpires on the circuit in an effort to precipitate a general walkout. Mr. Toole said, but only two of the others, Magerkurt and Derr, who were at Syracuse, joined the move. There were, however, two "no notice" resignations taking effect at the end of today's contest, according to Mr. Toole.

The other five, Gaston and James, at Toronto; and Carpenter, McBride and Vanfossen, at Philadelphia, refused to leave their posts and stated President Toole they were not in sympathy with the outbreak.

Washington and Jefferson Colleges plan to seat 12,000 at home sports.

ELWOOD BROWN TALKS TONIGHT

After a banquet given in his honor at the Los Angeles Athletic Club tonight, Elwood Brown, executive officer of the National Amateur Athletic Federation, will give a talk expressing the plans of the organization which he heads. It has been rumored that the N.A.A.F. has been organized solely to buck the A.A.U. but Brown says that this is not the case for the N.A.A.F. is backed by the government to better athletics.

Brown arrived in Los Angeles Monday night and expects to remain here several days. He has had much experience in athletics, being in charge of the inter-Allied games and a member of the Olympic Games board.

Tonight's banquet is open to all sportmen and men and women interested in promoting physical training. Anyone wishing to attend is asked to phone Bob Weaver before 10 o'clock this morning.

SHELBY FIGHT LOSERS BANKING ON PICTURES

GREAT FALLS (Mont.) July 17.—At a public meeting of the largest creditors of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight promotion organization here last night, George H. Stanton, representative of the Montana Bank and Trust Company, which received a door last week, was allowed a prior claim, according to information from attorneys representing some of the creditors.

Great Falls, however, about $16,000 of the debt were represented at the meeting, it was said. Mr. Stanton's claim of $50,000 is for money advanced as half of the $100,000 paid Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, June 15.

In another feature match tonight Andres Castano, Spanish heavyweight star, goes against Jack Washburn, Irish-American.

Would Dissolve International Harvester Firm

Charges Restraint of Trade to Farmer DetrimentSeeks Creation of Three Corporations

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, July 17.—Separation of the International Harvester Company into at least three distinct corporations with wholly separate owners, stockholders and officials was demanded by Atty. Gen. Daugherty today in a petition filed in the Federal District Court at St. Paul, Minn.

Such a step is necessary, the Attorney-General's petition declared, because the dissolution decree originally issued against the company in 1911 had proved "inadequate" to break up restraint of trade and restore competition in the production of harvesting machines and other farm implements.

The court was asked by the petition to enter a new decree holding that the Harvester company "still is in combination in restraint of interstate trade and commerce in harvesting machinery and still is a monopoly" and that it has monopolized said trade and commerce in violation of the Sherman antitrust law and contrary to the several opinions, orders and decrees to this court."

CHARGES MONOPOLY.

Unless steps are taken to effect a real dissolution, the petition continued, the "monopolistic control" of the defendant will increase and the result of course will be monopoly which the organizers of the company had in 1912 will be completely realized" to the detriment of the farmers of the country in their purchases of farm machinery.

The action of the Attorney-General was taken after prolonged conferences among government officials and follows the line suggested by the Federal Trade Commission in a report to the Senate in 1920.

The petition declared that a reasonable "test period" has been given to the corporation since the end of the World War as provided in the original decree to arrange its organization in the interest of the public. That period having passed, it was added, "the United States now has the right and further relief as may be necessary to restore competitive conditions."

COMPETITION SHRINKS.
Specifically the petition cited the International Harvester Company, the International Harvester Company of America, the International Flax Twine Company, the Wisconsin Steel Company, the Wisconsin Number Company, the Illinois Northern Railway and the Chicago, West, Pacific and Southern Railroad Companies and the officers and directors of all these concerns as parties to the asserted combination.

The number of independent manufacturers, it was declared, steadily is shrinking because of their inability to compete with the International. In 1912, it was asserted, the International produced but 64 per cent of the harvesting implements manufactured, while during 1922 the percentage was 66.

In addition, that sale of the Osborne and Chicago companies has had no beneficial effect on competition, since the amount of machinery marketed by those concerns has decreased.

CHICAGO COMPETITION

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
CHICAGO, July 17.—Prices of harvesting machinery are the result of vigorous competition which the Sherman law was enacted to prevent. It is fairly comparable with article after article produced by normal competition. Alexander Legge, president of the International Harvester Company, said today in a statement commenting on the government suit against the company filed in Federal District Court at St. Paul.

The suit, Mr. Legge said, is a continuation of the government action brought against the company eleven years ago. The Harvester Company, he said, was acquitted by court findings, and the attorney-general's admission of antitrust violations and practices toward customers or competitors, but in 1918 a decree was entered to insure fullest competition, requiring the company to sell to competitors certain complete lines of harvesting machinery, and limiting sales representatives to a single dealer in any city.

TEST PERIOD

That decree, he said, provided that at the end of a test period, which has now expired, the government would ask the court to determine whether or not free competition contemplated by the Sherman antitrust law exists in the farm implement industry. This step the government is now taking, the statement said, and continued: "As we understand it, the sole issue raised by the present petition relates to competitive relations with respect to harvesting machines only. It does not charge the company with unduly raising the price of harvesting machinery and the grave injury of the American farmer which charged in 1912, but it does charge that the company has been unduly depressing the price of harvesting machinery, particularly since 1920, to the injury of its competitors."

The situation in which the manufacturers of farm implements find themselves, the statement said, is due to the business depression that started in 1920.

CALEXICO APARTMENT BLAZE LOSS IS HEAVYFIFTY MADE HOMELESS BY 15,000 FIRE STARTED BY CIGARETTE

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CALEXICO, July 17.—Fifteen thousand dollars was lost and more than fifty persons were made homeless today when fire destroyed the Wintonia Apartments here. The fire is supposed to have been started by a cigarette thrown on an awning. Delay in sending for the fire department, the efforts of individuals in attempting to smother the flames, is asserted to have been responsible for the large loss.

When the fire department arrived the upper two floors had been destroyed.

Damage to the building and equipment was estimated at $10,000. Occupants of apartments suffered losses aggregating $5,000.

MOVE HOTEL BODILY AT ROOSEVELT DAM

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

ROOSEVELT, July 17.—The Apache Lodge, a hotel operated by the Southern Pacific Company, is being moved bodily to a point 100 feet distant, this made necessary by installation of gates across the Roosevelt dam, spillway through which the lake level will be raised fifteen feet when the reservoir shall have been filled.

All changes and improvements to be completed in time for the fall tourist season. While the Apache Trail bridges are being replaced by steel structures, travel will not be affected materially, for temporary detours have been provided.

When the fire department arrived the upper two floors had been destroyed.

Damage to the building and equipment was estimated at $10,000. Occupants of apartments suffered losses aggregating $5,000.

MORALILLS HIT EUROPE, BUSH SAYS

New York Chamber Head Opposes Granting Loans as Remedy

BY LARRY RUE
(By Cable—Exclusive Dispatch)
CONSTANTINOPLE, July 17.—Irving T. Bush, president of the New York Chamber of Commerce, after a flying trip to the Near East, left for Sofia yesterday en route to Belgrade and France, whence he is embarking for home following six weeks of study of the European political and economic conditions for the New York Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Bush's view differs radically from that of American bankers holding European securities. He believes Europe is suffering from moral bankruptcy, and until political stability has been established it is foolish to advocate financial assistance from America.

Mr. Bush regards a solution for the reparations problem as vital to England as well as Germany.

He thinks the position that France, being agrarian before industrial, will be able to recover quicker than England. He believes an avenue to a solution of the reparations problem is the proposal made by Secretary of State Hughes and later by Prime Minister Baldwin.

The court was asked by the petition to enter a new decree holding that the Harvester company "still is in combination in restraint of interstate trade and commerce in harvesting machinery and still is a monopoly" and that it has monopolized said trade and commerce in violation of the Sherman antitrust law and contrary to the several opinions, orders and decrees to this court."

That decree, he said, provided that at the end of a test period, which has now expired, the government would ask the court to determine whether or not free competition contemplated by the Sherman antitrust law exists in the farm implement industry. This step the government is now taking, the statement said, and continued: "As we understand it, the sole issue raised by the present petition relates to competitive relations with respect to harvesting machines only. It does not charge the company with unduly raising the price of harvesting machinery and the grave injury of the American farmer which charged in 1912, but it does charge that the company has been unduly depressing the price of harvesting machinery, particularly since 1920, to the injury of its competitors."

The situation in which the manufacturers of farm implements find themselves, the statement said, is due to the business depression that started in 1920.

CALEXICO APARTMENT BLAZE LOSS IS HEAVY

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

ROOSEVELT, July 17.—The Apache Lodge, a hotel operated by the Southern Pacific Company, is being moved bodily to a point 100 feet distant, this made necessary by installation of gates across the Roosevelt dam, spillway through which the lake level will be raised fifteen feet when the reservoir shall have been filled.

All changes and improvements to be completed in time for the fall tourist season. While the Apache Trail bridges are being replaced by steel structures, travel will not be affected materially, for temporary detours have been provided.

When the fire department arrived the upper two floors had been destroyed.

Damage to the building and equipment was estimated at $10,000. Occupants of apartments suffered losses aggregating $5,000.

The Little Warrior

BY P. G. WODEHOUSE

On the following morning after breakfast, at the hour when Jill had hitherto gone house-hunting with Mr. Mariner, the child Tibby, of whom up till now she had seen little except at meals, presented himself to her, coated and shod for the open and regarding her with a droll, pugnacious gaze.

"Ma says will you please take me for a nice walk?"

Jill's heart sank. She loved children, but Tibby was not an gratifying child. He was a Mr. Mariner in miniature. By half past the family gloom. It puzzled Jill sometimes why this branch of the family should look upon life with such an obstinate pessimistic gait.

"All right, Tibby. Where shall we go?"

"Ma says we must keep on the roads and I mustn't slide."

Jill was thoughtful during the walk. Tibby, who was no conventionalist, gave her every opportunity for self-education. She perceived that in the space of a few hours she had sunk in the social scale. If there was any difference between her position and that of a paid nurse and companion to a child, she had not paid.

She looked about her at the grim countryside, gave a thought to the chill gloom of the house to which she was about to return, and her heart sank.

Nearing home, Tibby vouchsafed her first independent observation.

"The hired man's quit!"

"Has he?"

"Yep. Quit this morning."

It had begun to snow. They turned and made their way back through the snowdrifts. The information she had received did not cause Jill any great apprehension. It was hardly likely that her new duties would include the stoking of the furnace. That and cooking appeared to be the only work to be done in the house, which were outside her present sphere of usefulness.

"He killed a rat once," said Tibby chatty. "Tessie! Chopped it right in half and it bled to death."

"Look at the pretty snow falling on the trees," said Jill faintly.

At breakfast next morning, Mrs. Mariner having sneezed, made a suggestion.

"Tibby, darling, wouldn't it be nice if we could play? Jill played a game of pretending you were pioneers in the Far West?"

"What's a 'pioneer'?" inquired Tibby, pausing in the middle of an act of violence on a plate of oatmeal.

"The pioneers were the early settlers in this country, dear. You have read about them in your history book. They endured a great many hardships, for life was very rough for them, with no railroads or anything. I think if we had a nice game to play this morning."

Tibby looked at Jill. There was doubt in his eye. Jill returned his gaze sympathetically. One thought was in both their minds.

"This is a string to this," said Jill's eye.

"Exactly what I think!" said Jill.

Mrs. Mariner sneezed again.

"You would have lots of fun," she said.

"What'd we do?" asked Tibby cautiously. He had been this way before. Only last summer, on his mother's suggestion that he should pretend he was a shipwrecked sailor on a desert island, he had prepared a log cabin in a whole afternoon cutting the grass in front of the house to make a shipwrecked sailor's simple bed.

"I know," said Jill. "We'll pretend we're pioneers stormbound in that log cabin in the woods, and the Indians are howling outside, and they don't go out, so they make a lovely big fire and sit in front of it and read."

"And eat candy," suggested Tibby by warming his idea.

"And eat candy," agreed Jill.

Mrs. Mariner frowned.

"I was going to suggest," she said frostily, "that you shovel the snow away from the front steps."

"Splendid!" said Jill. "Oh, but I forgo, I want to go to the village first."

"There will be plenty of time to do it when you get back."

"All right. I'll do it when I get back."

It took a quarter of an hour's walk to the village. Jill stopped at the post office.

"Could you tell me," she asked, "when the next train is to New York?"

"There's one at 10:10," said the woman behind the window.

"You'll have to hurry."

"I'll hurry!" said Jill.

CHAPTER 8

Doctors, laying down the law in their usual confident way, tell us that the vitality of the human body is at its lowest at 2 o'clock in the morning; and that it is then, as a consequence, that the mind is least able to comprehend the problems with equanimity, the future with fortitude, and the past without regret. Every thinking man, however, knows that this is not so. The true zero hour, desolate, gloom-ridden, and specter-haunted occurs immediately before dinner, while we are waiting for the cock-tail. It is then that, stripped for a brief moment of our armor of complacency and self-esteem, we see ourselves as we are—frightful chumps a world over, the wrongs righted, the world in which, hoping to click—we merely get the raspberry; where, animated by the best intentions, we nevertheless succeed in perpetrating the scallest bloomer and landing in a loved one's lap in the sunbus.

So reflected Freddie Cooke, that priceless old bean, sitting disconsolately in an arm chair at the Drones Club about two weeks after Jill's departure from England, waiting for his friend Algy Martyn to trickle in and give him dinner.

Surveying Freddie, as he droops on his spine in the yielding leather, one is conscious of one's limitations as a writer. Gloom like his calls for a pen of the most sombre. Zola could have tackled it nicely. Gorky might have made a stab at it. Dostoevsky would have landed it with relish. But for oneself the thing is too vast. One cannot even begin to summarize. It would have been bad enough in any case, for Algy Martyn was late as usual and it always gave Freddie the pip to have to wait for dinner; but what made it worse

M'ADOO TAKES STAND IN EAST

Testifies in Morse Asserted War Fraud Case

Was Counsel for Defendant on Leaving Cabinet

Courtroom Packed Awaiting "Disclosures"

IST A. P. NIGHT WIRE
WASHINGTON, July 17.—For nearly two hours today William G. McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury, occupied the witness stand in Federal Court here, and detailed his relations as counsel with Charles W. Morse, the shipping operator on trial for asserted war fraud against the government.

Reports that his appearance would be accompanied by important disclosures packed the courtroom yesterday. He gave his evidence calmly and there were few clashes between government and defense attorneys. His defense cross-examination by Dist.-Atty. Gordon bored somewhat into the relations of Mr. McAdoo with officials of the Wilson administration, but developed few facts which had been disclosed in previous testimony.

The law firm of McAdoo, Cotton & Franklin, of New York, the witness testified, became counsel for the Morse interests after the Cabinet had represented them in three capacities. The firm served as counsel for the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, operating a war shipbuilding yard at Alexandria, Va., and the Great Iron Works, another shipyard in Connecticut, and aided the Morse shipping interests in securing coal tonnage contracts abroad.

Mr. McAdoo said he had no stock in the Morse companies. His firm, he said, had received total cash fees of $85,000 and held unpaid obligations of the Morses for a like amount. The sums already paid were $16,000 in cash for representing the Alexandria Company and claims against the Emergency Fleet Corporation and $35,000 in cash in the tonnage contracts.

The Morse business, the witness said, was the subject of a full investigation, which developed that Senator Davis Elkins of West Virginia and Edward B. McLean, Washington publisher, were at one time listed among the directors of the Virginia corporation.

Optician Found in Blazing Auto Still Delirious

The condition of Dr. William E. Gosham, Hollywood optician, who was rescued from a blazing automobile in Laurel Canyon early Monday evening by a group of motion-picture actors, was reported as unchanged late yesterday. Shortly after he was extricated from the flaming machine he said to have become delirious and after receiving medical aid at the Hollywood Community Hospital was removed to his home.

Graham, according to the story told police detectives by Charles Grider, an eyewitness to the accident, was on his way to the Laurel Canyon grade when a passing motorist shouted to him that his car was on fire. Clarence Burton, George Cooper, Lionel and Charles Gillette, returning from the studio, found Graham still seated in the machine at the bottom of the bank. He was pulled from the blazing car and taken to the hospital.

Dr. R. Broadbent declared yesterday that Dr. Graham's condition was due to overwork and the shock of the fire.

MORE SCHOOL SPACE FOR COMPTON PUPILS

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE
COMPTON, July 17.—This city voted bonds for a new grammar school last spring, to be located in the North End, the expectation being that this new six-room building would relieve the congestion in the old school. According to the report of Supt. O. J. Hause at the close of the school year, this group of buildings will be crowded again in September, and the School Board has let a contract for the erection of six new bungalow school buildings at a cost of $11,522.56, to Smith & Reinecke local contractors. It is expected they will be ready for occupancy in September.

CITY MANAGER QUIT

Asserts Bakersfield Council Is Not in Accord With Him

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
BAKERSFIELD, July 17.—James Ordon, appointed City Manager for Bakersfield about a month ago, has tendered his resignation to the City Council. Ordon says he could not get permission from the Council on the matter of the appointment of a new Chief of Police to relieve C. H. Stone, who has resigned. Perry C. Taylor, acting Chief of Police, has been the choice of a part of the Council and the remainder has been at loggerheads over other applications. At a meeting of the Council last night, J. T. McGuire, a citizen, appeared before the Council and demanded that a Chief of Police be appointed at once. The Council took no action on Ordon's resignation nor did it reply to McGuire's exhortations.

POLICE SEIZE GIANT HOUND IN PASADENA

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
PASADENA, July 17.—A monstrous Russian wolf hound was booked at Pasadena Police Station today on a charge of vagrancy. The dog, which is 100 pounds, was brought to the station by its master, John Kern, China grade. Richard failed to make the sharp turn necessary to strike the bridge. Richard's wife and baby were cut by glass. Richard was driving toward the bluffs and was about to make the turn when he saw a large approaching from the opposite direction on the bridge. The other car was driven by Mrs. Gleanah Bell Behan, who, on seeing Richard's car approaching, stopped, killing her engine. It is said that Richard, in trying to avoid the stalled car, swerved off the bridge. The dog looks more like a calf, and is of considerable value. It will be held until the owner arrives.

NAB ASSERTED FORGER KING

Rural Constable Arrests Man Said Invariably to Pick Large Banks as Victims

Larkin J. Flannigan, declared to be a nationally-known forger who has eluded the police and private detective agencies of several big cities for more than two years, was captured yesterday by a constable in the small Antelope Valley community of Lancaster. Brought to Los Angeles by Deputy Sheriff Nolan and Pinkerton detectives, Flannigan admitted, according to the authorities, three local forgeries amounting to $5100 and said there were others he had forgotten about.

Besides being an expert forger, he is a connoisseur of ability and usually picks out big banks as his victims. The First National Bank, which cashed a check for him, $2600; the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank, which victimized him $5000; and the Citizens' Trust Company, which lost $500, are the known claimants in this city, the detective said.

METHOD OF PROCEDURE

Flannigan, according to the detective, nearly always worked by introducing himself to the biggest bank official he could reach, as an officer or one of the bank's managers in some small town. After discussing bank affairs, with which he showed great familiarity, long enough to disarm suspicion, he then complained of lack of funds and asked to have a check cashed. This method was used in the three cases mentioned.

"Yes, I laid those checks down," the detective says Flannigan told them, "and I've done other jobs in Los Angeles. Several of them."

DEFENSE PROBLEM IS TACKLED BY TRAINEES

RESERVE OFFICERS PREPARE TO RESIST INVADERS IF THEY COME

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

MONTEREY, July 17.—The Monterey terrain has been plotted in a defense problem now being engaged in by the Reserve Officers' training camp near here and if any invasion is attempted while the officers are at work on the problem the foe will be given a merry time. It was explained by the instructors that although America has not been invaded in many of the 100 years of our history, the problem was great as that of actual progressive warfare in the enemy's territory.

A "blue" force of the encamped officers worked on the fortifications in the terrain in the planning work yesterday. Points for potential gun mounts were picked out.

Maj.-Gen. Charles G. Morton, commanding the Ninth Corps Army division, and the group of officers on duty were on the program to inspect the camp and talk to the officers. Congressman Free of this district will inspect the camp on Friday.

Col. E. V. Smith, commanding the camp, is to be guest of honor at a banquet to be given by the Monterey Chamber of Commerce at a date to be announced later.

ELINOR GLYN WILL BE JUDGE AT EXPOSITION

Elinor Glyn, authoress, will be present Thursday evening in Brandstetter's Montmartre Gardens at the American Historical Revue and Motion Picture Industrial Exposition extending courtesies of the evening. Mrs. Glyn will be judge of the dancing contest. All film stars of Warner Brothers' Studio are to take part in the program at the gardens, where the winner will be awarded the best dancing couple. Some of the Warner Brothers' stars are expert dancers and are expected to offer novelties.

NEW TRAFFIC OFFICER

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
NORWALK, July 17.—The first county community to boast of its own traffic officer is Norwalk. Sunday, the officer was given a tryout of First and Front streets and during the mad rush of machines of the pleasure seekers, no accidents occurred at this intersection. Autos crossed this corner on Sunday afternoon at the rate of 2000 per hour.

THREE CHEAT DEATH IN AUTO CRASH ON BRIDGE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
BAKERSFIELD, July 17.—Three persons narrowly escaped death last night when a car driven by Eric Richard, 18, from Kern River bridge, just north of China grade. Richard failed to make the sharp turn necessary to strike the bridge. Richard's wife and baby were cut by glass. Richard was driving toward the bluffs and was about to make the turn when he saw a large approaching from the opposite direction on the bridge. The other car was driven by Mrs. Gleanah Bell Behan, who, on seeing Richard's car approaching, stopped, killing her engine. It is said that Richard, in trying to avoid the stalled car, swerved off the bridge. The dog looks more like a calf, and is of considerable value. It will be held until the owner arrives.

POLICE SEIZE GIANT HOUND IN PASADENA

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
PASADENA, July 17.—A monstrous Russian wolf hound was booked at Pasadena Police Station today on a charge of vagrancy. The dog, which is 100 pounds, was brought to the station by its master, John Kern, China grade. Richard failed to make the sharp turn necessary to strike the bridge. Richard's wife and baby were cut by glass. Richard was driving toward the bluffs and was about to make the turn when he saw a large approaching from the opposite direction on the bridge. The other car was driven by Mrs. Gleanah Bell Behan, who, on seeing Richard's car approaching, stopped, killing her engine. TALK ON PHONE PROVES COSTLY

Dealer Answers Call Next Door; Returns to Find $55 Missing

It cost E. F. Hess, a dealer in hardware at 857 South Figueroa street, $55 to answer the telephone yesterday afternoon, according to a report to the detective bureau last night.

About 3 p.m., Hess says, a young woman entered his establishment and said that a woman was calling him on a telephone in the store next door, after being unable to ring him on his own.

Hess went next door and talked about lawn-mowers with his unknown feminine prospect for many minutes. When he returned, he found a yawning cash register whose $55 contents had flown.

The phenomenal development of the business of Los Angeles Harbor is shown eloquently in the semiannual report of Capt. S. Steele Sandberg, traffic manager of the Board of Harbor Commissioners. Capt. Sandberg presented his report yesterday.

It shows that in the last six months the tonnage over the municipal piers has increased 20 percent, or more than the tonnage for the entire year of 1922, which was 6,607,193 tons. In commenting on these figures, Capt. Sandberg said:

"This wonderful increase, of which the city of Los Angeles should be proud, demonstrates that the entire world has eyes on this port as a growing shipping center, and the wonderful opportunity it afford for capital to locate in this city."

One item in the semiannual report shows the remarkable growth of business. In June this year the largest number of passengers—11,710—that has left an English port for several months, the Leviathan steamed out of Southampton today to complete her first round-trip voyage since she was laid up last week on the same liner.

Many Americans who had finished their first peep about Europe delayed their departure to cross on the new American ship, and there also were aboard a number of "joy riders" who came over only last week on the same liner.

kinds of utility service in agricultural districts of Central Illinois and the growing industrial district of East St. Louis, can show an excellent history of dependable business growing steadily year by year.

One of the most important considerations of an investor in placing funds for the continued assurance of safety of principal and dependable income should be the investigation of the territory served by a company. Our investigations of the territories of the companies named above have preceded our recommendation of their bonds which we offer to-day.

BOND QUOTATIONS

QUIET AFFAIR

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, July 17.—The bond market was a rather quiet affair today with prices holding steady, both in the high-grade investment issues and the more speculative issues.

United States government bonds moved within a narrow trading area, closing fractionally lower. Foreign issues were dull and price changes unimportant.

Readings as closed 1 3/4 higher after moving up more than 2 points on early dealings. Seaboard Air Line consolidated 6s receded 1 and 1/2.

Industrial issues were quiet, gains of 1 point each by Warner, Sugar 7s and Cerro de Pasco 8s being the only outstanding changes.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Following are the closing quotations and rates on the New York Stock Exchange. Purchased by League & Bryan.

LOS ANGELES IS FACTORY HAVEN

Eastern Manufacturers Seek Escape From Unions

Massachusetts Shoe Man May Establish Plant

Regards City as Ideal From Every Standpoint

Eastern manufacturers are casting envious eyes on Los Angeles because of the comparative freedom from labor troubles here and are beginning to consider the advantages of this section as an industrial and manufacturing center, according to G. Malcolm, shoe manufacturer of Haverhill, Mass., who is here conducting an investigation that may result in the removal of his large factory to this city. Mr. Malcolm, accompanied by Mrs. Malcolm and their sons, Frank E. and Coe L. and daughter, Miss Laura, left Malcolm's residence recently by automobile after an overland trip of thirty days that included visits at all points of interest en route.

"Intolerable labor conditions in the East, particularly the unreasonable demands of the unions, especially in the shoe business, are causing capitalists and manufacturers to study conditions in other parts of the country," said Mr. Malcolm. "Because of the success with which our own shoe plant is operating in Los Angeles and due to the remarkable market and prosperity of this section, Los Angeles offers inducements to the eastern manufacturers and capitalists."

While no definite plans to remove his large plant in Haverhill, which turns out over 1000 pairs of shoes daily, to Los Angeles have been put into effect, Mr. Malcolm said that he is of the opinion that this city would make an excellent location for a plant of the kind he owns.

"Since coming to Los Angeles I have seen a spirit of growth and development that astounded me in spite of the gloomy reports of Los Angeles as the climatic, industrial and social capital of the United States," said Mr. Malcolm. "I am actually amazed at what I have seen here and I feel a pleasure in continuing my explorations of this great city."

If Mr. Malcolm decides to locate in Los Angeles it will mean that other friends and business associates of his in Massachusetts will do likewise. They are waiting for Mr. Malcolm to complete his investigations and make a decision, he said.

UNIONS HURTFUL

"The labor unions," declared Mr. Malcolm, "have almost run the manufacturers out of Haverhill, Brockton and other shoe towns in the East. When we found that conditions were such that our business could not continue to grow and prosper in the East, we started to find a new location."

Mr. Malcolm's enthusiasm for Los Angeles will be transmitted to his friends back East.

"I want to locate here and I would like to see all of my friends enjoy the climate out here," he said.

Los Angeles would make an excellent location for a shoe factory, according to Mr. Malcolm.
